When An Innovative Job-Search Platform Met Innovative Insurance: Our Journey With Welcome To The Jungle

Meet Welcome To The Jungle: the platform transforming the job hunt by putting candidates first. It aims to connect job seekers with game-changing opportunities at the most innovative companies in the tech landscape.

In March 2022, Welcome To The Jungle reached a pivotal point in its growth journey. It recently secured Series A funding, and it needed robust cover to support its next moves. That's when the team discovered Capsule through the Startup CFO Slack community.

Welcome To The Jungle recognised the need for a specialist insurance broker that could match its scale and ambitions. We swiftly rose to the challenge - within just one week, we managed to secure a more cost-effective insurance programme. Not only that, but we helped facilitate the brand's growth by assisting with an office relocation.

Welcome To The Jungle now has the peace of mind that comes with comprehensive insurance that scales as it does.

"Capsule's remarkable ability to provide swift, customised solutions was precisely what we needed to keep working towards our plans with confidence. We've also benefitted from huge savings - with a partner that not only protects our assets, but also cares about our success."
